Viewing the Earnings Screen

On the Earnings screen, your confirmed earnings for the week in progress will be shown at the top. This includes completed trip earnings, confirmed trips, and any incentives.

Viewing the Previous Week's Confirmed Earnings

Below your earnings for the current week in progress, you can see your previous week's confirmed earnings. You can see the details of the trips you made any week by tapping the week.

Earnings can be viewed by week, day, or trip by selecting the timeframe or trip you want to see.

Unconfirmed Tips

Sometimes, you may see Unconfirmed Tips in your trip details. These are tips that are still pending and processing, which may take a few days, after which tips will show as confirmed.

The screenshot shows a mobile app interface for a driver's trip. At the top, there is a blue header with a back arrow, the text "Trip #25", and a "Help" link. Below this is a dark blue section for "Confirmed Earnings" totaling $15.00, with a sub-label "Show up + Delivery". Underneath is a white section for "Trip Earnings" totaling $15.00. Two rounded rectangular boxes follow: the first for "Confirmed Tips" ($5.00) with a note that the tip was processed on Oct. 28; the second for "Unconfirmed Tips" ($4.00) with a note that customers have 24 hours to adjust the tip. Below these is a "Trip Details" section with a star icon, indicating an "In-Store Pickup at 1:45 AM, Oct. 28" at "Walmart San Jose #5435, 777 Story Rd." At the bottom of the screenshot are two buttons: a grey "PREVIOUS" button and a dark blue "EXIT" button.
