Rewards Program FAQs

How will I know if I qualify for the Rewards Program?

If you qualify for the rewards program, you will get an email the first week of every month, that includes your unique Walmart+ membership code. If you think you may have qualified but didn't receive an email, please contact Driver Support.

What if I qualify one month and not the next for the Rewards Program?

Qualifications for the rewards program are updated every month. If you fail to qualify one month, you can be eligible the next month.

Will I get a new Walmart+ membership code every month for the Rewards Program?

Yes. You will get a new membership code for each month that you qualify.

What if I'm already a member of Walmart+?

If you are an existing member of Walmart+ and you qualify for the Spark Driver Rewards Program, your membership will be extended based on the number of months that you qualify.
